

Abby's Flavorful Lesson

Once, a girl named Abby wanted a snow cone. She searched but, no sign of her favorite flavoring, watermelon. "Mom. Where is the watermelon flavoring?"

I told her "I don't know Abby. You're just going to have to try a new flavor."

"But I don't want to!"

"You're just going to have to find something new. It helps you learn more about yourself!"

"Ok."

She came to me minutes later "Guess what? I tried a new flavor." "Good job! Which one?"

"I tried CHERRY!!! IT WAS SO GOOD! Trying things is such a good thing! Thanks Mom!"
