

Unescapable

I throw she fetches
I throw she fetches
Oh why must my worries be brought back
I throw far
Still they are fetched by an invisible force
Strong and irresistible, I tried

I bury them deep
Deeper
To no avail
They claw out stronger
If I tie them in string will that to make them strong
Can they escape a padlocked box

Fail, fail
I now know it is impossible
So what to do now
I try to run, hide
All useless

Gather courage
Brave now I shall solve and fix
Now strong, problems don't break me but lift me
Another opportunity to rise
No need to tie, throw,lock

I am strong
